

April 19, 1978

PRESIDENT: All right, the question is, shall the Speaker's order be amended to go directly to Final Reading and not stay on any more overrides at this time. Record your vote. Is he withdrawing that anyway? Well, that's the end of that. Record the vote.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays to do something.

PRESIDENT: Could I have an agenda please?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Maxey offers an explanation of intent. That will be inserted in the Journal. Mr. President, your enrolling clerk respectfully reports that she has on this day at 2:23 presented to the Governor for his approval the following bills: 739, 859, 860, 692 (sic), 966 and 907. Mr. President, your Committee on Rules gives notice of public hearing in Room 1019, Thursday, April 20, and 9 o'clock in the morning. Mr. President, a new resolution, 308, introduced by Senator Koch will be laid over. Mr. President, Senator Newell asks unanimous consent to have the reports from the LR 87 Committee referred to the Rules Committee.

PRESIDENT: Seeing no objections, so ordered. Well, we don't need them on the first six. Then we will. All right. Final Reading. All Senators are required to be at your desks. We won't commence Final Reading until everyone is at their desk. Does the Sergeant at Arms know where Senator George is? Please return to your desks. Final Reading. Senator Warner, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR WARNER: To ask the Chair a question.

PRESIDENT: Yes, sir.

SENATOR WARNER: Several Senators have inquired of me what the status is. Would it be okay for me to indicate that we're $1,872,000 over the indicated available receipts?

PRESIDENT: You want to know if it is all right to say that?

SENATOR WARNER: Yes, I didn't want to violate the rules of the Chair.

PRESIDENT: No, I think that should be stricken.

SENATOR WARNER: Okay.

PRESIDENT: Strike it from the record and strike it from your consciousness. We're on Final Reading. We're going to start here sometime when everybody returns to their desks. All right. Commence Final Reading.

CLERK: (Read LB 624 on Final Reading.)

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 624 pass. Record your vote. We are under Final Reading. Record.

CLERK: (Read record vote found on pages 2174 and 2175 of the Journal.) 33 ayes, 13 nays and 1 excused and not voting, 2 present and not voting, Mr. President.
